Patti Nisbet and Jean Galvin will teach a beginning penny whistle class on August 31 from 6:30-8:30 PM at the Tuftonboro Town House.

Order your own penny whistle online or stop by the Folk cellar in Wolfeboro to ask if they can order one for you.

Learn to play simple Irish tunes on a simple instrument.

Registration forms are available online at Tuftonboro.org or at the Town Offices.

Cost of class will be $15 per person.

Come and join the fun and learn a new skill. More advanced classes will be held in the fall.

Beginner Knitting Class

Tuftonboro Parks and Recreation is pleased to announce a beginning knitting class to be held on Saturday mornings from 8-10am at the Nineteen Mile Bay Pavilion.

Cost of the 4 classes will be $25 and will include use of needles and yarn or you may bring your own needles and yarn. The class is limited to 7 people and will be filled on a first come first served basis.

Please download a registration form at www.Tuftonboro.org and return it to the Town Office along with the check payable to the Town of Tuftonboro.

There will be two instructors to provide for much individual attention.

Classes will be held rain or shine from 8-10am on June 2,9,16, and 23.
Thirty Seven egg hunters participated in the 1st annual Tuftonboro Parks & Rec. Easter egg hunt on Saturday April 7. Participants hunted for their share of 500 goodie filled eggs, hidden by the parks and rec commission at Tuftonboro Central Park.

While the event was free of charge participants donated non perishable food items for the Life Ministries food pantry.

Participants of the quilting 101 class, instucted by Terri Sontra, created beautiful table runners during the 4 week class.

Do you have a craft or hobby you would like to share with others and instruct a class? Tuft. Parks and Rec would welcome any suggestion for classes and instructors.

Please email parksandrec@tuftonboro.org.
