

TAC list of local producers

October 10, 2017

Contact: Joan Magrath, jgramini@gmail.com

Aaron S. Gauthier - aronliese@hotmail.com, 603-569-5002, considers themselves as a resource for others: raising sheep, honey bees and Have a horse trailer to lend.

Adam Stockman - 17 McDuffee Rd. Canaan Valley, afstockman.as@gmail.com , 603-715-4649, wildflower honey available at Spiderweb Gardens, Black's and direct.

Arrow Wood Turning - Nicholas Moore Studios, arrowwoodturning.com / 443-980-9688 unique turned bowls, burls, plates and custom pieces from kiln dried wood or a variety of raw wood slabs.

Bald Peak Christmas Tree Farm - 421 Mountain Rd./Rt. 171, Cy and Marsha Hunter, bpfarm@worldpath.net, 603-544-7364. Balsom & Fraser fir, Blue and White Spruce, Scotch and Concolor Pine. Open day after Thanksgiving and Saturday and Sundays until Christmas, 9 to 4.

Brian Stockman - McDuffee Rd.,Canaan Valley, 603-539-3338, carver and fabricator with all natural products be it wood, bark, bone, stone, and even ice; grower of heirloom hops for Tamworth distillery, and mushroom forager

Bob Moulton - 27 Ledge Hill Rd., 603-569-6925. custom saw milling of felled trees and/or salvaged wood.

Cheney Farm - Route 109A, Wayne Cheney and his sister Barbara, 603-569-8631. Offer eggs, round bales of hay, grass fed beef spring and fall, turkeys and pigs could be arranged.

Dina Farrell - The Olde Ways, Mustard Seed Farm, mustardseedfarm@yahoo.com, 603-569-4529, all natural, non-toxic herbal products for health and beauty, raw milk and artisan cheese from Jersey cows.

Flock and Goat Farm - Vanessa Stangle, flockandgoatfarm@gmail.com/ 518-307-5151, offers pigs, chickens and eggs, seasonal vegetables, by appointment.

Heirloom Baskets by TLH, Theresa L. Hlushuk, 264 Mountain Rad, Ctr. Tuftonboro, NH 03816, Phone: (603) 539-3472, Theresa.hlushuk@gmail.com

Hand-made baskets by Theresa L. Hlushuk. Each basket is woven using the center of the rattan vine from Southeast Asia. Theresa has been weaving baskets since 1996 and she teaches basket weaving at Lakes Region Technology Center in their Adult Education Spring and Fall Program. Need a unique basket? Contact her to design and create the basket just for you!!

Hunter Family Maple Syrup - Mountain Road (Route 171), Jackie Rollins 603-544-3252, Offers maple syrup since 1850 at their sugar house, collecting about 1500 buckets per year from the end of February to the first of April. Visitors Welcome.

Spiderweb Gardens, Bill Stockman, spiderwebgardens@ne.wcbc.com, 603-569-5056, 22 Middle Rd., Tuftonboro, NH 03816. Spiderweb Gardens, a 3 generational family owned garden center is the go to place for all your gardening needs. From compost, dirt, to vegetables, shrubs and flowers, and seasonal decorating needs here it is. Bill and his helpful, courteous staff can quickly answer your gardening questions.

Stockman's Cabinetry - 2 McDuffee Road, jstockman@hughes.net, 603-539-8028, Jim Stockman offers custom cabinetry, benches, tables etc at his shop, builds Standup Gardens "the Babylon Gardens", the next best thing to a backyard.

Walk in the Garden - Wade A. Hlushuk, 264 Mountain Road, Ctr. Tuftonboro, NH 03816, Phone: (603) 539-3472, Email: wade.hlushuk@gmail.com

Seasonal: Home-made jams, jellies, salsas, mustards and chocolates by Chef Wade A. Hlushuk. Products are made using local area or home-grown fruit/produce. Hand-crafted vanilla is also available for baking your favorite home- made dessert. Wade has been in the culinary field since the age of 16. Creating food has always been his passion.